REAY STANLEY ADCOCK

Reay Stanley Adcock died early Friday morning, 21st March 2008 aged 86 years. Reay worked for Richard Turner & Son from 1958 until his retirement in 1993, during which time he sold livestock in both Bentham and Gisburn Auctions. He will be remembered by many at Bentham in particular for his expertise in the Dairy ring and Association Sales of Dalesbred Sheep. He also managed Richard Turners Kendal Office for many years from it's opening until his retirement. Prior to joining Richard Turner & Son, Reay was employed by Kendal Auction Mart as an auctioneer where he got his early training under the late Harold Hodgson of M B Hodgson & Son from 1946 until 1958. Many people will, like us, miss Reay, but our loss must be negligible to that of his widow Betty and his family, to whom we can do little but extend our sincere and deepest sympathy.

Also one of Reay's old sparring partners "Dick Thompson" of Anchor Farm, Penrith died on the 27th March aged 91 years.

A brother of Johnny and Gilbert, all three will be well remembered by many of the older customers buying or selling in the auction. Dick was a character and a half, once seen and never forgotten. He was a past master at drawing 'luck' from even the hardest of the vendors, or getting anyone, but himself, to pay for the drinks round in the Royal Oak after the sale at Bentham. We can now only offer our sincere and deepest sympathy to his widow Mary and her large family.
