OPENING CATALOGUED SALE OF STORE LAMBS

Customers have for sometime asked why specialist sales of store lambs are not a feature in our sales programme. Bearing in mind the enormous amount of contacts in the sheep industry we have made through the strength of our Wednesday night sale, not only in the northern region but throughout the whole country, this shall be our opening sale. We are confident that the introduction of specialist Store Lamb sales will be a success and complement our Wednesday night sales.

Entries for catalogue close 28th July

RUSSELL STEER

By now, most of you will have met our new junior auctioneer, Russell Steer and, even if you haven't actually met him, at 6'6", you are sure to have seen him around the auction. Russell joined us on 2nd June and has rapidly become a welcome addition to our team.

Now 22, Russell was born and raised in South Devon on a mixed Dairy & Sheep farm, along with his two older brothers. He has spent time working on beef & arable farms in Australia and says that, had he not been able to become an auctioneer, he would be tempted to farm over there.

Russell wanted to be an auctioneer from a very early age, honing his skills by selling toy animals to invisible bidders! Later in life he was so keen to join the profession he even dated an auctioneer's niece in the hope that she might put a good word in for him! However, Stephen needn't worry about his daughter, as Russell has a girlfriend now!

Nicknamed Stretch (for obvious reasons) it would seem that, despite his lean frame, Russell eats like a horse, and anyone trying to curry favour with him could do worse than offer him a pack of Jammy Dodgers!

Russell is currently spending time canvassing potential mule gimmer lamb buyers in his home county of Devon.

An entry of 38 calves met a strong trade for all ranging qualities. Best British Blue's were well over £3 to a top of £36 for a bull from JM&TJ Livesley, Inskip selling to regular buyer Colin Baxter, Garforth. A Large entry of Limousin x calves sold well, peaking at £235 for a heifer from SP Parker, Bentham and purchased by Messrs Rothery, Millom.
