Auctioneers Comment (Russell Steer): Despite being the week before our Christmas Show, a good entry of 52 got away to a reasonable trade. The week's top price was £320.00, given by Colin Baxter for a good shaped 5 week old blue bull from R R & J A Knowles of Myers, Kendal. Although the handful of black and white bulls on offer were not up to the standard of recent weeks, a top price of £35.00 was achieved on two occasions.

Please note: Judging for next week's Christmas Show starts at 11.00am PROMPT, and the sale at 12 noon. Please can all vendors have their calves in early!!

SAWDUST IN PENS

Due to the economic downturn and timber yards not being as busy it is becoming difficult to obtain regular supplies of sawdust in the quantities required. Most of you will appreciate the considerable amount of sawdust put into pens to keep lambs clean and we hope to continue at the same level. However, if any vendor wishes to put extra bedding in their pens (SAWDUST ONLY), please feel at liberty to do so. We also suggest that lambs can be left to 'stand' before loading for auction which should help to keep them clean during transport and at auction.
