Auctioneers Report: This years first In Lamb ewe sale offered a little bit of something for everyone!. With numbers short and bidders in abundance many of whom went home empty handed it made for a strong trade. Matthew Waller Carlingwha topped the market with a 4crop Beltex ewe scanned in lamb with twins for March selling to Chris Hewitt Eskewbeck for £110.00. Matthew also had some Mule Shearlings scanned for March to Suffolk & Texel making £102.00 to Janet Gorst. Ian Rawlinson from Quarry Bank sold some young pure Suffolk & Texel ewes scanned in lamb and due in Feb. His suffolks topped at £95.00 and Texels to £80.00. Zwartble Shlgs in lamb to the Zwartble made £74.00 and an In Lamb Hogg to £65.00 from Miss Lucy Carr.

Auctioneers Report: With a total of 53 calves this week saw a decent entry after last weeks quality show. John Lawson from Barnfield carried on from last week's good run of calves claiming top price of £292.00 for an eight week old Blue Bull. Top price Limx came from Robin Boothman and sold to M & R W Stirzaker Milnthorpe giving £285.00 for the bull. Again Black & Whites were good to sell reaching £130.00 for a good looking 5 week old from GT&M Lawson Oak Bank. With fierce bidding for B+W's buyers are still selective of the better and stronger sorts.
