AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Russell Steer): A rather small number of calves forward for the 'Spring Lims' Show and Sale but a new record was set for the top price for a rearing calf at Bentham. The Champion calf, a corking bull, less than 5 weeks old from Mason Gardner of Greenside sold to Peter Fawcett of Mearbeck for a staggering £490.00. 2nd and 3rd place bulls came from MW Hodgson, Swallowmire and made £370.00 and £300.00 respectively, both going home with the judge, Mr Chris Broadley of Ripon. Ken Polkinghorne of Butterfield Gap exhibited two cracking blue bulls well worthy of a mention making £370.00 and £350.00 selling to Colin Baxter. Top Price Black and White was £148.00 from Simon Coultherd, Clapham selling to Luke Armistead of Ulverston.
