B&W Bulls £145.00 £63.00 JD&L Whitfield, Tatham

AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Russell Steer):- A strong show of calves for the time of year saw a good trade throughout. BB Bulls topped the trade once again, Carol Parker, Reebys reaching £378 closely followed by Colin Wilson, Nether Hall with £375 and Ken Polkinghorne, Butterfield Gap £370. The better end of the B&Ws were keenly sought after with a top of £145 from John Whitfield, Raw Ridding. Buyers are being selective when it comes to B&Ws, the stronger and older you get them, the dearer they are.

SHEEP SOUTH WEST

Stephen, Yvonne & Russell headed off to Okehampton in Mid Devon to promote the Autumn Sheep Sales at Sheep South West last Tuesday. We were fortunate to have with us an excellent Mule Hogg with Lamb at Foot from Raymond Heigh, which caused a good deal of interest and gave farmers from the South West a first hand view of the excellent quality of sheep shown at the auction. There was a great deal of interest in the Autumn Sales and we came back very encouraged.
