B&W Bulls	£160.00	£45.97	WH Kitching & Sons, Helsington

AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Russell Steer):- Another large show of calves sold well to a packed ring of buyers and bidders. Trade is slightly back from the flyers seen in past months, but calves still look well sold. David Crackles, Burrow had 3 outstanding BB Bulls, all end of May born, that topped at £370 with two and £360 with the other, all selling to Colin Baxter, Garforth. Second quality continentals were anywhere from £180 - £250. B&W Calves topped at £160 for a great month old calf that had been reared on the cow from Raymond Kitching, Helsington selling to Tony Blacow, Burton in Lonsdale.

AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Russell Steer): This month's Stirk Sale happened to fall on the Yorkshire Show day, although this did not affect numbers, or the great quality of stock on offer and by no means did it affect trade. John & Angela Clarke, Melling showed a great run of suckler bred stirks and topped the sale with a Lim Blk making £645. There were notably more continentals forward, which were keenly sought after. The dairy bred stirks on offer also got away well.
