AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Russell Steer):- Of the 92 calves forward, 63 were B&W. This increase in B&W calf numbers meant trade for them on the whole was back accordingly. Top price B&W came from Ian Hodgson, Rantree Fold an 8 week old realising £145 to Tony Blacow, closely followed by 3 other vendors who realized £140. Buyers are wanting a bit of age and strength, and are then willing to give into 3 figures for it. Continentals were in strong demand, Ben Carter, Scronkey Farm topped the day with a pair of BB Bulls that made £380 & £378 and 13 exceeded the £300 mark.
