MORNING SALE

AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Stephen Dennis):- Another Christmas Show of exceptional quality was a credit to all our vendors which gave our judges Tony Hunter & Jim Walton an unenviable task.

Championship honours were eventually awarded to Mark & Heather Atkinson of Quernmore for their Pedigree Heifer by 'Hydaways Prosper' (a son of Ladino Park Talent) and out of 'Wyredale Dante Aster 60' bred from 6 generations of VG or Excellent and later selling to Alan Swales of the Joylan Herd for £2750.

A day of mixed fortunes for Peter & David Knowles of Cragg Farm, Kendal whose 2nd Calved Pedigree Cow 'Kendal Cragg Storm Joy' was awarded the Reserve Champion prize and later bid to £2920 prior to breaking a leg at the ring exit which led to it being destroyed. The unfortunate incident was particularly upsetting for Messrs Knowles who should otherwise have been able to enjoy the plaudits for producing such an outstanding cow.

AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Russell Steer):- A mixed entry of calves with regards to quality ahead of next weeks Christmas Show, saw 2nd quality stock look a dear trade. £320 was the top call on 2 occasions, for a strong BB Bull from Malcolm Fell, Whittington and for a Charolais Bull from Robin Boothman, Burnley. B&W's were anywhere from £15-£172 with buyers being selective over better calves.
