AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Russell Steer):- Quality was best described as mixed at this week's sale of calves, but that did nothing to deter the strong trade for all classes. Top of the shop was a cracking British Blue bull calf from Pam Parker, Hardacre, which realised £390, closely followed by a fantastic Limx from Andrew Long, Old Hall which made £388. A total of 9 Continental bull calves exceeded the £350 mark. With quite a few lesser B&W's destined for slaughter, the overall average was down somewhat, but Andrew Dawson, Lower Brow Top made £128 for a pair of strong 9 week old calves. A handful of calves made 3 figures, with average rearing calves £50 - £90 and killing calves from £7 - £50. More calves needed to satisfy demand.

AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Stephen Dennis):- Trade consistent with other centres and reflected the wide variation of quality on offer which included many under finished lambs being purchased for further feeding. Well finished lambs still keenly bid for, lightweight horned lambs more difficult to place.
