MORNING SALE

REARING CALVES

AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Russell Steer):- A lighter show of calves sold very well with generally more older calves about making for an impressive average report. That said the younger calves were also keenly sought after, with Stephen Postlethwaite's Lim Heifer at only 19 days looking particularly well sold at £292. Better end B+W's were into 3 figures, with second quality rearers £60-£80 and nothing less than £38. Robert Burrow, High Snab had 7 forward, 5 of which were 3 month old and 'off milk' selling to £235 for a red & white and the 5 averaged £176. Overall B&W average was an impressive £117.81.
