ANNUAL SALE OF WORKING SHEEP DOGS & PUPS

A large crowd of farmers, trainers and onlookers from both near and far gathered in the warm yet comfortable sunshine, to be a part of Bentham Auction Marts third sale of sheep dogs and pups. Trade topped at £2625 and two others exceeded £2000 as quality working dogs were in strong demand. Local trainer and trials man Richard Briggs from Wennington topped the sale with Jock, a three year old registered black, white and tan dog with plenty of power and sense who handled the flighty mule hogs with ease, and attracted a bidding war, with Edmund Capstick coming out on top and securing the dog to work on his Birkhaw farm, Sedbergh. Pups were harder to sell with a large entry forward. Showing promise and beginning to work, was Zak, an eight month old from Jeffrey Hey that peaked at £787, snapped up by John Beck, Bentham.

AUCTIONEERS REPORT (Stephen Dennis):- An outstanding entry of 220 Show Lambs was a credit to all producers who once again showed themselves as experts in responding to modern retail trade requirements. The breeding and quality of the lambs was superb and our congratulations go to Messrs Frankland for their Champion pen of 10 outstanding Beltex x Lambs all sired by their ram purchased in Bentham from Beltex breeder, Dan Towers of Wray. Show Lambs were an excellent trade selling to an average of 190.5p/kg for all 220. Trade for commercial lambs was in line with other centres back by 10p per kilo on the week. Whilst more buyers were present demand was weaker due in part to exchange rates depressing the export market.
